

DAYTON, OHIO

We found PSS systems and services to be a significant asset to our officers to detect and investigate criminal events. It is my belief that through consistent use, this system will ultimately reduce and deter crime.

— Richard S. Biehl, Director and Chief of Police Dayton, OH

June 21-29
2012

Interrupted robbery spree;
apprehended suspects

Conducted successful criminal drug networking investigation

Part of Trusted Situational Awareness program in Dayton, OH
- National sensor test bed for surveillance top 7 DoD priority

Supported by IDCAST***

18 events supported by aerial imagery data in real-time

Operation results:

- Improved operational effectiveness
- Enhanced identification and interruption of illegal activity
- Provided valuable forensic intelligence

* University of Dayton's Institute for the Development and Commercialization of Advanced Sensor Technology